Good Afternoon. I came to this country as a student from India about more than 30 years ago. I settled in this country, because it provided opportunities I did not have back in India because of decades of corruption and rule by a single political dynasty. I have been a democrat all my life and voted for Obama. But this election concerns me, concerns me for future of our country. Are we going to leave behind our children the same situation, the same future that caused us to settle here in the first place?

Make no mistake, this is not like any election before. The evil of slavery, of colonialism is raising its head, it just changed form. Gone are the days where they went to Africa, chained people and brought them to slavery across the new swathes of the world. Gone are the days of colonial merchants with private armies entered as friendly traders into countries like India and set local leaders one against another to gain power and then plunder and destroy the best of the nations and cultures. Today they do not chain your bodies, they chain our minds with propaganda to gain power, to enslave so that they can continue to plunder the resources of the country that belong to all. They do not set one tribal leader against another but divide the people by setting one group against another based on race, gender etc. to capture power.

This force has no allegiance to any political party, their agents exist across the parties. This is called establishment. They took control of most of the media and use you and me to influence our minds, to help gain power for their agents. They are a propaganda machine where they select winners or losers depending on who falls in line. They tell us frivolous backroom discussions are more important than corruption, loot and plunder. Today, Hillary and Bill are their front face and enablers, media is their agents, establishment is their master and we are all the subjects.

The propaganda from these forces is served in your bedroom, in your living room, on your laptop, on smartphones and is constantly influencing your minds. They can take the best story and give it a spin to look bad or take the worst story and spin it to look good. They can report selectively or time it when they report it or may not even report until it suits their goal. They have chained your mind. This is new form of slavery.

They tell us they want open borders, they tell us they are being humane. My friends, it is not due to any altruistic reasons but it is because they want to grab resources with cheapest labor. This takes away your jobs and make you dependent on the handouts from the state, so that they can control us.

Clintons are termed as 'Global Super Predators', they are the enablers for new kind of colonialists who are robbing the countries around the world by grabbing their resources while propping unscrupulous people while leaving their people to die in misery. Just spend a few minutes on what they did in Haiti, in Czech Republic, in Nigeria and the wars they engaged in, how they are enriching themselves, their cronies and their relations. In 2001, there is a massive earthquake in India that killed 20,000 and injured 166,000 people. I led a team to raise quarter million dollars after company match. Clintons also got into the game. They created an Org and collected 57 million dollars and guess how much they gave to victims, 2.7 millions. Most of the officers, hear this, two co-chairman, five trustees and a director of the Org, all were later convicted felons. This is mafia. Do you think they will do any better for us? They engage in wars to serve those who serve them. The money they spend engaging in wars run into trillions while our inner cities are destroyed, our infrastructure is rotting and our jobs are taken away.

When Wall street honchos pays Hillary hundreds of thousands of dollars for few minutes of her time, the kind of money we cannot even make in a lifetime or perhaps multiple, do you think they kind of doing out of love for her? These are the same people who defrauded millions of people and took millions of dollars bonuses while taking taxpayers bailout. Politicians like Clintons talk sweet words, give eloquent speeches, say they stand for high moral ground but the ugly reality is they are either pawns in the hands of establishment or the establishment themselves, enriching themselves and their friends. We get carried away with those words. This is how we are chained.

This establishment can commit any frauds, affect any number of millions, their enablers like Clintons can set up fraudulent foundation or email servers, jeopardize our security and our nation, they can go free. No matter how many strikes they make they are not affected. But an inner city kid gets, 'three strikes you are out' laws setup by them. But our chained minds continues to vote for them again and again.

Few words about Obama. Martin Luther King Jr said, 'He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it.' So, Obama is as much responsible to it as Hillary in the corruption done under his nose. Mr. President, shame on you. I can find only two reasons for this. Either you are with them or you are a coward to face them. Michelle Obama says, 'when they go low, we go high'. Where was this wisdom on how DNC treated Bernie. If Obama cares for this country, cares for our future, he will do the right thing, and that is bring Hillary to justice. When we have specially privileged people under law, we are a banana republic. We are quickly slipping into second or third world country.

Why do I, a lifetime democrat, feel compelled to be one of the organizers of this rally? I feel a strong urgency because of the tide of powerful forces manipulating our country's elections that has every potential to drag our country (into being a) second or even a third world nation. We matter only during the time of elections. We are given only one chance every 4 years. Are we going to see through their game and do the right thing? We have to make a choice. It is your choice. Thank you.
